

What's new at www.CTphilanthropy.org?

New Features

The Connecticut Council for Philanthropy has launched its new website – www.CTphilanthropy.org – with a more contemporary design and improved functionality. We hope you will find it a valuable tool to support your efforts to learn and connect to peers and important resources. We welcome you to explore our new site and come back often.

Improved navigation – You can use the navigation panel along the left side of the site or the keyword search located at the top right of the site.

Searchable member director – Locate your Connecticut colleagues by name, organization or location.

Materials from past programs – Council members may access resources from past programs.

Increased access to Knowledgebase - You can find information on best practices in grantmaking and much more in this national collection.

Registration on-line – You can sign up for programs directly from the new events calendar and receive a confirmation.

Philanthropy In/Sight – Members have access to this Foundation Center interactive mapping tool designed for grantmakers to see the impact of philanthropy around the world.

Logging in Members can log in using their new username and password to access a wealth of information. All members will receive new login information. Subscribers to Connecticut Grantmaker's Online (CGO), the online database of more than 2,000 Connecticut funders, will continue to use their established username and password.

Support – If you encounter problems logging in or need help finding information on the new site, please email ccp@CTphilanthropy.org or call 860-525-5585.

We extend our special thanks to the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving and the H. A. Vance Foundation for their support of this endeavor.
