

2,000
participants

2000+ participants joined us for events, trainings, and webinars throughout the year.

3 New Community Networks

We developed and launched 3 new networks this year: Development Officers Network, Philanthropy Professionals of Color, and Scholarship Providers.

125+
Program & Network Hours

We offered more than 125 hours of programming and networking opportunities.

40
Partnerships

We brought national and state experts to CT grantmakers including: Council on Foundations, Grantmakers for Effective Organizations, PEAK Grantmaking, Philanthropic Initiative for Racial Equity, The Trust-Based Philanthropy Project, and many more.

100%
found our conference helpful

“This has been one of the best conferences I have attended in over 20 years in this field.”

Conference attendees overwhelmingly agreed that this year's event was informative and helpful to their work.

As a member, you received:

- Networking opportunities and sector collaboration with our 12+ affinity and network groups and funder listening conversations.
- Ongoing learning and professional development for you and your team, such as having difficult conversations, return readiness, and cybersecurity.
- Strategic consulting and advisory services for funders with help choosing grantmaking software, racial equity consultants, informed RFPs, and more!

Amplifying the Voice of CT Philanthropy

As we moved into the second year of the pandemic, we kept members informed and connected.

We represented philanthropy on state committees and work groups; provided updates on local and federal policies, like new health access and equity bills; held ongoing discussions on early childhood, ARPA, housing/evictions, and workforce development; and hosted conversations with state and nonprofit leaders.

Op Ed & Updates

Alongside policy updates, we published an op-ed in the CT Mirror on the role of philanthropy in the state's recovery.

State Conversations

CCP held or joined over 60 meetings with state and municipal leaders on response and recovery efforts.

Member Stories

We shared over 25 member success stories celebrating bold new ideas across CT philanthropy.

Advancing Racial Equity

2 New Racial Equity Cohorts

Connected leaders of color in philanthropy

45 Program & training hours

CCP supported members with expertise and networks to advance racial equity and justice, like: the Groundwater Approach to Racial Equity; network meetings exploring implicit bias, equity in communications, and donor education; and the launch of our Philanthropic Professionals of Color peer group to offer space for networking, connection, and healing.
